Manual prepared in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000, (the “Act”) for Safripol (Pty) Ltd (“Safripol”)

A | INTRODUCTION

The Act, together with other relevant legislation, provides for the right of access to information held by public and private bodies when such information is requested for the exercise or protection of any rights.

Its purpose is to help requesters access Safripol information and any other information that Safripol maintains. The Act requires Safripol to make information available to requesters so that requesters:

- know what types of information Safripol maintains; and
- can request access to information that falls within the ambit of the Act and which is not information that falls in the class of “mandatory protected privacy rights”.

F | PROCEDURE FOR REQUEST FOR ACCESS (SECTION 53 TO 57 AND 60 OF THE ACT)

1. To request a document that falls within the ambit of the Act, the requester must complete the prescribed form as set out in Annexure B (Form C) hereto and submit the form, together with the relevant fee, to the Information Officer at the address listed under B above.
2. The prescribed form must be completed with sufficient detail to enable the Information Officer to clearly identify the record/s requested, the requester's identity (including email address, postal address or fax number) and in which form the records should be supplied, should the request be granted. The requester must explain which right is being protected or exercised. The requester must also detail any other way the requester would like to be informed of Safripol's decision other than in writing.
3. If the request is being made on behalf of another person, the requester must submit proof, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, of the capacity in which the requester is making the request.
4. If a requester does not use the standard form, the Information Officer may:
 - reject the request due to lack of procedural compliance;
 - refuse the request, if the requester does not provide sufficient information; or
 - delay it until the standard form is received.
5. The Information Officer will process the request and notify the requester in writing within 30 calendar days of its decision whether or not the request has been granted. Should the request be granted, the notice will state the access fees (if any) that are payable. The fee payable for access to a record depends on the form in which access is required and the reasonable time required to search for and prepare a record. If the requester has asked for the information to be made available in a specific form that requires a different procedure to be followed, a higher fee may be applicable. This is also the case in the event that Safripol has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure. A requester that qualifies for exemption of the payment of any fee, must state the reason for exemption. A copy of the fee structure applicable to public and private bodies can be accessed at the Information Regulator. Requesters must pay the fees before Safripol will hand over any information. Compliance with a request to provide information in a specified form may depend on the form in which the record is available in Safripol's records, hence access in the form requested may not be possible in certain circumstances.
6. If Safripol cannot find any requested record or it does not exist, Safripol will notify the requester by way of affidavit that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.
7. Should the request be refused, the notice will state adequate reasons for the refusal.
8. Publication of this manual does not give rise to any rights to access information, except in terms of the Act.
